

Are You a Scripture-Driven Church?

Is the Bible your church's supreme authority, or have other things taken first place?

On this question, the church can't afford to be wrong.

Often today's evangelical church is driven by purposes that have little or nothing to do with God's Word.

When the church neglects the Bible, it creates a spiritual vacuum. Today that vacuum is filled by humanistic philosophies, man-centered authority structures, and consensus approaches to "truth".

The church that is disconnected from the Source loses its spiritual power. The results are disastrous for the leadership, the membership, and the lost in our communities.

How can a church prevent other things from supplanting the Word of God?

How can we recognize when other things have taken first place?

How can a church recover and remain true to its Christ-ordained purpose?

TeachingtheWord's Bible-focused seminar will equip you to give God's Word its rightful place. Session topics —

- The Church's Sole & Final Authority
- Contemporary Church Movements & Their Problems
- A Takeover in Your Church?
- Restoring the Scripture-Driven Church
